To all Air Italy suppliers

Good morning,

With this letter we want to promptly inform you about the decision taken this morning by the Shareholders' Meeting of Air Italy S.p.A., in order to provide you with the details of the situation and to convey what will happen in the coming weeks.

Alisarda and Qatar Airways, shareholders of Air Italy through AQA Holding S.p.A., have jointly decided to put the company into voluntary liquidation.

We want to reassure you that, since this is a voluntary liquidation, all creditors will be repaid.

As for the voluntary liquidation rules, the liquidators will be appointed in the next hours. Once settled, the liquidators will define the liquidation program and, from that moment on, you will be provided with all the details on how and when your invoices will be paid.

Finally, I would like to take this opportunity, also on behalf of the Shareholders, to thank you for your important support during these years.

Kind regards,

Roberto Spada
Chairman of Air Italy S.p.A.
